

Subject: Your Newton at Home Events Newsletter for March 2023
Date: Wednesday, March 1, 2023 at 5:59:48 AM Mountain Standard Time
From: Newton at Home <programcoord@newtonathome.org>
To: chosiad@rcn.com <chosiad@rcn.com>

March 2023 Programs

---

Dear Members, Volunteers & Friends of Newton at Home:

Welcome to March!

Warmer weather is on its way and Newton at Home is springing into action. This month we're offering many opportunities to connect, online and in person.

In honor of Women's History Month on March 13th we will present a special virtual art program featuring four unique women artists from around the world. On March 20th we're gathering for lunch at The Cottage in Wellesley.

See the complete list of March's activities below.

You're always welcome to email me here or call the office at 617-795-2560.

We look forward to seeing you soon.

Amy Kraus, Program Coordinator

---

Morning Musings
President's Library at the
Scandinavian Living Center
*TODAY* Wednesday, March 1
10:00 - 11:00 A.M.

Join your fellow members and volunteers in person in the President's Dining Room or online on the first and third Wednesdays of each month for a lively one-hour discussion on topics ranging from favorite books and movies to childhood memories.

March 1st's musing: If you had to choose a different decade to be born in, which one would you choose?

A link and topic reminder will be sent out to all members and volunteers the Tuesday morning before each group. No need to register in advance.

Click here for more details

Christian Science Church and
Mapparium Tour
Wednesday, March 8
1:30 - 4:45 P.M.

Join your fellow Newton at Home members for a bus trip to the Christian Science Plaza in Boston to tour their ongoing exhibition, "How Do you See the World?" including the Mapparium. Following our visit to the Mapparium, we will have a private tour of the Mother Church, built in 1895.

To register please email Amy at programcoord@newtonathome.org or call the office at 617-795-2560.

Meet at the Scandinavian Living Center;

the bus will depart promptly at 1:30. When you register, please let us know if you would like a ride to the Scandinavian Living Center to meet the bus. Registration is required and limited to NAH members at this time; space is limited and reservations are first come, first served. Free. This trip is generously funded through a Commonwealth of Massachusetts grant to Newton at Home.

Click here for more details

---

Knitting Club
Thursday, March 9
10:30 A.M. - 12:00 Noon

Novice to experienced knitters are all welcome at the Newton at Home Knitting Club. Yarn, needles and patterns for those wanting to get started will be available. We hope to see you there for some knitting and chatting.

Click here for more details

---

Reading for Sharing Group
Monday, March 13
10:30 A.M. - 12:00 Noon

The Reading for Sharing Group is for those who want to revive the pleasure of the spoken word. This group reads primarily poetry with occasional works of prose. Group members are encouraged to bring something meaningful to them to share, read and discuss. The joys of reading aloud will become alive again.

Click here for more details

Art and the Exciting World of Women

Monday, March 13

2:00 - 3:00 P.M.

Join your fellow members for a virtual chat with Marianne van Arkel-Priest from the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, and learn about four women artists who view or have viewed art in very different ways during the 20th and early 21st centuries. These women have used their skills as artists to convey to the world messages about history, politics, social justice, and societal norms. They hail from Europe, the United States, and Latin America. Their stories explain much about the times and places in which they lived.

To register please email Amy at programcoord@newtonathome.org or call the office at 617-795-2560. Meet on Zoom. The link will be sent to all registrants on the morning of the program. Generously offered by the Speaker's Bureau of the MFA, Houston.

Click here for more details

Book Clubs Meet Monthly

We have two vibrant Book Clubs that meet once a month. Both groups read fiction and non-fiction books. If you are interested in getting more information about the book clubs, please contact the office.

Click here for more details

Morning Musings
President's Library at the
Scandinavian Living Center
Wednesday, March 15
10:00 - 11:00 AM

Join your fellow other members and volunteers in person in the President's Dining Room or online on the first and third Wednesdays of each month for a lively one-hour discussion on topics ranging from favorite books and movies to childhood memories.

March 15th's musing: What would you say is the best decision you ever made?

A Zoom link and topic reminder will be sent out to all members and volunteers the Tuesday morning before each group. No need to register in advance.

Click here for more details

History Folks:
"I'll Have What She's Having":
The Jewish Deli
Thursday, March 16
10:30 A.M. - 12:00 Noon

Join your fellow members for a virtual chat with a speaker from the NY Historical Society to hear about a unique exhibit that examines how Jewish immigrants, mostly from Central and Eastern Europe, imported and adapted traditions to create a uniquely American restaurant and reveals how Jewish delicatessens became a cornerstone of American food culture.

Click here for a recent review from the NY Times.

To register please email Amy at

programcoord@newtonathome.org or call the office at 617-795-2560. Meet on Zoom. The link will be sent to all registrants on the morning of the program. This program is generously funded through a Commonwealth of Massachusetts grant to Newton at Home.

Click here for more details

Dining Club
The Cottage, Linden Street,
Wellesley
Monday, March 20
12:00 Noon - 2:00 P.M.

Its décor, service, and food reflect casual Southern California and New England warmth. Members pay for their own meals.

To register please email Amy at programcoord@newtonathome.org or call the office at 617-795-2560. When you register, please let us know if you will need a ride to the restaurant.

Click here for more details

Words Galore with Author Val Walker
Thursday, March 23
1:30 - 2:30 P.M.

Join author Val Walker for a fun and lively hour of wordplay and brain twisters—a logophile's paradise. We'll learn new words as well as explore the history of old words and delve into the origins of words. We'll enjoy limericks, riddles, famous quotes, puns, and fascinating trivia about trendy words. We'll play guessing games with the dictionary and words-within-words games. Inspired by Shakespeare, Ogden Nash, or Edward Lear, we challenge our wits and might end up with a few laughs.

This program is in-person at the Scandinavian Living Center in the President's Dining Room. To register please email Amy, at programcoord@newtonathome.org or call the office, at 617-795-2560. When you register, please let us know if you will need a ride to the SLC. Free. This program is generously funded through a Commonwealth of Massachusetts grant to Newton at Home.

Click here for more details

Reading for Sharing Group ZOOM

Monday, March 27

10:30 A.M. - 12:00 Noon

The Reading for Sharing Group is for those who want to revive the pleasure of the spoken word. This group reads primarily poetry with occasional works of prose. Group members are encouraged to bring something meaningful to them to share, read and discuss. The joys of reading aloud will become alive again.

Click here for more details

Visit our Online Calendar

For up to date information on programs including additional programs or changes to program dates or times, please check our website calendar.

Click here for more details

Facebook

Twitter

Website

---

Copyright © 2023 Newton at Home, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you are a Newton at Home member, volunteer or Friend of Newton at Home.

Our mailing address is:

Newton at Home
206 Waltham St.
West Newton, Ma 02465

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

